EASLEY APPOINTS MCMILLAN TO CLEAN WATER MANAGEMENT TRUST FUND

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley appointed John B. McMillan of Raleigh to the North Carolina Clean Water Management Trust Fund.

McMillan has been an attorney at Manning, Fulton & Skinner, P.A. since 1967. He is a member of the North Carolina Bar Association and the Wake County Bar Association. McMillan served as a member of the North Carolina Nature Conservancy from 1989-1998 and was chairman from 1995-1998. He is also a member of the Friends of the NC Museum of Natural Sciences and the Law Association of UNC, Inc. board of directors. McMillan received his bachelor's degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1964 and his law degree from UNC-CH School of Law in 1967.

The North Carolina Clean Water Management Trust Fund provides funds to clean up pollution in the state's surface waters and conserves those waters not yet polluted. The board distributes grant funds, develops grant criteria and guidelines, and manages the land in North Carolina. The board has 18 members, the Governor appoints six of those members. The speaker of the house and the senate pro-tempore each appoint six members. The members serve four-year terms.
